August 2006

Dear Friend of Mentoring:

We are proud to present Michigan's premiere mentoring conference, Shaping Mentoring's Future, which is being held on Wednesday, October 25, 2006 at the Michigan State University Union in East Lansing. We hope you will come to this event to expand your knowledge, network with your colleagues, and learn new ways to enhance the services you provide to the children in your community.

You will be energized by the two national mentoring experts presenting keynote addresses, "Dr. Mentor" Susan Weinberger and Richard Rowe from the African American Male Leadership Institute. We are also pleased to have experts from MENTOR/National Mentoring Partnership and LEARNS (National Mentoring Center) presenting workshops throughout the day.

We are deeply committed to making life great for all of Michigan's children and we know that you are, too. We hope you will take advantage of this opportunity to hone your skills and renew your passion to serve.

Thank you for your commitment and dedication.

Sincerely,
